The Fairview Casualty company bases its claims for business upon its honest, prompt and liberal treatment of its policyholders, when they have claims for settlement. It issues contract of health and accident insurance which is seldom equalled and never excelled. Place & Paige, general agents; Carl S. Note, special agent.

To-night we are to see the pictures of the Wolgast-Nelson exhibition, wherein the redoubtable Dane met his Waterloo. They are to be shown at the opera house this afternoon and evening, and it is safe to say that every lover of boxing will be on hand to witness these interesting pictures, as they are said to be the best light pictures ever taken.

To-morrow will be observed as world's Sunday school Sunday at the Congregational church, and all members of the Sunday school are urged to be present. Members of the primary and junior departments will meet in their class rooms at 10:15 and parents are asked to see that their children are on time. If you are not now a member of the Sunday school, to-morrow will be a good time to begin.

The Gentlemen's Driving club has a good program arranged for May 30, at the trotting park. There will be four horse races, including a three-minute, 2:30, 2:24 and 2:18 class, all to be half-mile heats. Other attractions will be a baseball game between the Barre Athletic club and the U. V. M. Ineligibles, running races, and it is expected the troop of cavalry from Norwich university will give an exhibition drill on the track, between heats of the races.

Upwards of two hundred couples were present in the new hall at the Howland block last evening, when the famous Edwin J. McEnelly's singing orchestra gave another one of its popular dances. Although the orchestra needed no introduction to Barre music lovers, many persons attended only to hear the concert, which preceded the dancing. The first two ladies to apply for admission to the new hall, Mrs. O. D. Shurtleff and Mrs. J. T. Callahan, were presented tickets by the manager, to be kept as souvenirs, and the first half-dollar paid by a gentleman for admission was presented to Mr. Howland as a memento of the occasion. The last appearance of McEnelly's orchestra for the season will be to-night, when a dance will be held in the new hall from eight until twelve o'clock. Dancing will begin promptly at eight and the admission will be fifty cents for gentlemen and twenty-five for ladies.

Why Is This Thus?

Why is it that

Your coat loses its beautiful lines after it has been exposed to dampness?

Your lapel bulges up on one side?

Wrinkles form down the front and across the back?

Shoulders develop humps in unsightly places?

It is because that same beautiful coat which made you look so fine when you paid for it was faked into shape with a hot flat-iron.

You can't tell the difference between a coat that is shaped by painstaking needlework, or by the hot flat-iron, which costs practically nothing, unless you try a Rosman Made Suit.

You are protected from this kind of trickery when you wear a Rosman Union Made Suit. We invite you to try them. All latest styles and shades. Prices from $10.00 to $25.00
